

CROWDS AT RAWLINSVILLE.

Two Thousand Teams in and Around the Twelve-acre Grove Where the Services Were Held—A Successful Religious Revival to Close Tomorrow.

RAWLINSVILLE, Sept. 13.—On Sunday the Rawlinsville camp was the largest number of people gathered together ever before seen in this section of the country. Many persons who have been attending the camp since last year, say they never saw so large a crowd of people there as was here to-day.

The woods where the camp is held contains about twelve acres. This ground and all the trees along the public road and farm road within a half mile of the woods were "bathed" full of teams. We feel sure we are not exaggerating when we say there were two thousand teams and about eight thousand people were present.

At the past services the Rev. R. C. Hamilton, preaching at last past week by Rev. C. B. Johnson. Tomorrow the services will be held at 10 a. m. Rev. W. W. McMillan will preach the closing sermon. The closing services will be held at 7 p. m. by Rev. T. C. Cannon, of Bluebs.

FATHER KAUZ HOME AGAIN.

The Pastor of St. Anthony's Catholic Church Returns from His European Trip. For the past two months he has been in Europe. A goodly crowd of his parishioners were at the Pennsylvania station to see and welcome their pastor, but no formal reception was held.

Last evening a reporter of the INTELLIGENCER called upon Rev. Kauz, and found him hale and hearty. He recalled the striking incidents of his trip with the greatest enthusiasm. His party consisted of himself, his wife, and his children.

The trip to Europe was a most successful one. He visited many of the most interesting places in Europe, and returned home with a large number of interesting photographs and a number of interesting letters.

Rev. Kauz will next Sunday tell his congregation of his travels, and as nearly all are of German origin, and Germany will be heard with much interest.

Their Pastor For Fourteen Years From the Chautauque Valley. Rev. A. H. Shertz, formerly of Lancaster, for fourteen and a half years pastor of the Grindstone Hill charge of the Lutheran church, has resigned his pastorate, the resignation to take effect on October 1. The charge is now in the hands of the Rev. J. M. McGee, who has been called to the charge of the Grindstone Hill charge of the Lutheran church, has resigned his pastorate, the resignation to take effect on October 1.

A PISTOL AT HIS HEAD.

Old Jacob Gettmacher, After Getting 805 in a Robbery, is Held by the Sheriff and Released of Most of It by Two Well-Dressed Men Who Escape.

COLUMBIA, Sept. 13.—A daring highway robbery was committed on Saturday afternoon on the road leading from Columbia to Kinderhook, and the perpetrators of the act succeeded in getting away with their booty. The particulars of the robbery, as far as can be learned, are as follows: Jacob Gettmacher, aged seventy years, living at Newtow, came to Columbia on last Saturday morning for the purpose of drawing his pension money from the bank.

At the bank he was met by two men, who were well dressed, and one of them seized Gettmacher by the throat and held a pistol to his head. The other man tore open his vest and abstracted the money. As soon as they secured the money they made their rapid tracks across the fields and were soon lost to sight.

Gettmacher, the victim of the robbery, came to Columbia on Saturday afternoon and reported the attack upon his father and himself to the sheriff. He was then taken to the jail, and the sheriff was informed of the robbery.

On Saturday afternoon an alarm of fire was started in the town of Newtow. The fire was caused by a spark from a locomotive and quite a good blaze could be seen. The fire was extinguished by the fire department.

INDIANA FARMERS ALARMED.

They Want to Sell Their Property and Go West. Hog Cholera in the Central Part of the Hoosier State Causes Serious Anxiety—What Was Discovered by the Post-Mortem Examination by a Farmer.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 13.—The ravages of hog cholera, in the central part of the state, are a matter of serious anxiety by those concerned. An important discovery is alleged to have been made by a farmer named Shepard, in Henry county. He had long believed that the disease was nothing but parasites or trichina in the stomach of the hog, and to vindicate his judgment he held a post-mortem examination upon a hog that died this week.

After several hours' watching the apparent cause of the disease, he finally gave up the idea of parasites or trichina, and called upon a drayman, and presenting a check was placed under arrest. This claimant is named Shepard, and he lives in Henry county, a small town on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, near Bellevue. He said he had been feeding his hogs for some time, but beyond this would say nothing. Later he told the coroner that certain parties had been feeding his hogs for some time, but beyond this would say nothing.

After several hours' watching the apparent cause of the disease, he finally gave up the idea of parasites or trichina, and called upon a drayman, and presenting a check was placed under arrest.
